20 June–30 July 2020

Located in Romainville, in the eastern suburbs of Paris, Air de Paris presents an exhibition of works by Eliza Douglas in parallel with Brice Dellsperger's debut exhibition at the gallery. Dellsperger's new films, shot during lockdown, aim at disrupting normative sexual genres—a continuation of the artist's 'Body Double' film series that has been developed since 1995. Eliza Douglas, meanwhile, presents a series of loud photographs of illustrated T-shirts, focusing on the world of heavy metal and its sub genres.
